Why Germany?

Dearth of Nurses and Caregivers – With increased life expectancy and an aging society, combined with the decreasing number of young people beginning their working lives, the demand for professional nursing care is rising.

Some 50,000 Nursing positions are currently vacant and German Nursing Council predicts up to 3,00,000 vacant positions to be filled by 2030.

Germany is open to foreign nurses with unlimited working visa, equal job opportunities, equal working conditions and career development opportunities.
